The ECCWLI creates a support system and a network to build a platform of Women Leaders. Event revenue will fund networking events for women throughout East Contra Costa and events to empower and educate girls and women.

About the Keynote Speaker:

Rue Mapp is the founder and CEO of Outdoor Afro, which celebrates and inspires African American connections and leadership in nature. In 2010, Mapp was invited to the White House to participate in the America's Great Outdoors Conference and subsequently joined a think-tank to inform the launch of the First Lady's "Let's Move" initiative. She was appointed program officer for the Stewardship Council's Foundation for Youth Investment to oversee its grant-making program from 2010-2012.
